Dear George:

After jogging our friend here in [ ] several times about the idea of Free Hungarian Demonstrations in connection with the trials in Hungary, I have now been advised that, while his home organization thinks very well of the idea, no funds are available to support such an operation.

In view of this situation, our friend feels that things are at a dead end and he does not contemplate taking any further action on the proposal. He has, of course, protested the decision of his home office, but to no avail.

I am sorry that this good idea appears to be stymied, but there it is.

It was very good to see you in [ ] and I hope it will not be too long before we can get together again.

Sincerely,

[ ] Esquire,
American Embassy,

cc: [ ] EK
